Primary Election

State Capitol— Wyoming's Primary Election will be held August 19. Secretary of State Max Maxfield reminds residents that: "Wyoming has a wonderful reputation for high voter turnout." "Let's continue to display good citizenship by voting," Maxfield said. Polling places will open at 7:00 a.m. and remain open until all those persons who are in line to vote at 7:00 p.m. have cast their ballot. "There are no excuses for not voting, because Wyoming allows absentee voting prior to election day and even allows voter registration on election day," Maxfield said.

Candidates and their supporters are also reminded that the state's electioneering laws prevent any form of campaigning within one hundred (100) yards of polling places.
